Introduction:

Durgabai Deshmukh College of Special Education (Visual Impairment) was established in 2006 to conduct Bachelor's Degree programme in Special Education (Visual Impairment) under the Department of Education, University of Delhi and recognized by the Rehabilitation Council of India. The college has been included in the list of colleges prepared under section 2 (f) and 12 (B) of the University Grant Commission (UGC) Act, 1956.

The college is established and run by the Blind Relief Association, Delhi (B.R.A.), a premier non-governmental organization, conducting training programme to prepare special teachers for the children with visual impairment for 5 decades.

The teacher training programme in BRA, started as The Training Centre for the Teachers of the Visually Handicapped (TCTVH) in 1967 under the aegis of National Institute for the Empowerment of Persons with Visual Disability (Divyangajan) - NIEPVD, the then National Centre for the Blind.

Ideal Location

Named after the famous freedom fighter, educationist and a doyen among social reformers Dr. Durgabai Deshmukh, the College can rightly boast of providing an excellent environment for the teachers in making.

Housed within the same campus is the reputed JPM Senior Secondary School for the Blind, a government-aided residential school affiliated to C.B.S.E. with over 200 visually challenged students on its roll. This School serves as practicing school for the teacher trainees. Apart from the School, BRA campus has a big Multi Skill Training Centre where a host of programmes in vocational training, including candle making, book binding and stationary making, Tailoring, relaxation massage, computer training etc. are being conducted for the benefit of the persons with visual impairment.

The college also extends the facility of audio recording and Braille printing of study materials to the visually impaired students as per their requirement through the in-house recording studio and Braille Printing Unit. Moreover, BRA regularly hosts national-level sports training and competitive events for the blind. The Government of India has also recognized the pioneering work of The Blind Relief Association and in 2012 conferred the most prestigious National Award for the Best Institute working for the Persons with Disabilities.

Thus, studying in Durgabai Deshmukh College can give a teacher in the making, an excellent opportunity to acquire a comprehensive knowledge on education, vocational training, personality development and rehabilitation of the persons with visual impairment.

Keeping with its rich heritage, the college also initiated various curricular and co-curricular activities providing equal opportunities to both seeing and visually challenged students, such as taking part in inclusive sports events, cultural activities, etc. The college is an active member of the Equal Opportunity Cell of University of Delhi and the students of the college participate in various co-curricular activities of the university and other organisations.

The college has a Learning Resource Centre (library) with rich information resources which include 4697 volumes of print and braille books, talking books, rare books, conference proceedings, research bulletins, annual reports, back volumes of journals, CDs, DVDs and e-resources on education as well as special education. It also subscribes to 20 National and International journals/periodicals on Education and Special Education. It provides ample opportunity for students and teachers to develop their professional skills and enrich their knowledge.

The library offers e-library for the visually impaired students. For the convenience of its faculties and teachers, the library has its own website which is totally accessible for all its students.

The college is also having a well-equipped resource room. It hardly needs emphasizing that College's excellent location and the facilities conveniently available to it, provide the ideal environment for pursuing course in special education with a special focus on visual impairment. The college has close association with various National and International universities offering courses in Special Education. The college also provides academic as well as technical consultancy to various institutions in India and abroad. Above all, the College has eminent and highly experienced regular and guest faculties.
